UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

IN THE MATTER OF MANDATORY
ELECTRONIC FILING FOR CERTAIN CREDITORS
AND THEIR AGENTS FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM
OR INTEREST

GENERAL PROCEDURE ORDER NUMBER 2009-5

THIS MATTER arises sua sponte to apply mandatory electronic filing requirements to creditors and their agents who file with the Clerk, on average, one or more proofs of claim or interest per week. These filers, if they are not already mandatory electronic filing attorneys, will be considered limited registrants for limited electronic filing and will be required to complete the Court's registration form and obtain a procedural manual in order to be assigned an electronic filing login to file claims. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that commencing December 1, 2009, creditors and their agents who file, on average, one or more proofs of claim or interest per week are required to file them electronically.¹

FURTHER ORDERED that creditors and their agents who are required to file proofs of claim or interests electronically are required to complete the Court's registration form, obtain a procedural manual from the Court and be assigned an electronic filing login, in that order.

¹Limited registrants for filing proofs of claim are not required to be attorneys, however, the ramifications of using the login will be the same for limited registrants as they are for attorneys pursuant to L.B.R. 5005-4 and 9011-4.

FURTHER ORDERED that this General Procedure Order is effective commencing December 1, 2009.
