

CHAMBERS PROCEDURES: JUDGE ELIZABETH E. BROWN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT, DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Information Regarding Mediation

If all parties to the adversary proceeding or contested matter agree, there is a mediation program administered by the Faculty of Federal Advocates (the "Faculty") that may provide mediation services. Parties meeting certain criteria may qualify to participate in the mediation program without paying the mediator's fees. If the parties desire to pursue this process, they need to notify the Court and may contact:

Faculty of Federal Advocates
Bankruptcy Mediation Program

Ms. Sue Toms, Administrator
Bankruptcy Mediation Program
600 Seventeenth Street, Suite 1800 South
Denver, Colorado 80202
303.573.5900
Fax: 303.573.1956
stoms@lindquist.com

Upon initial contact, the parties requesting pro bono services will be screened for eligibility. After that determination, if requested, and if all parties continue to desire to proceed with mediation, an attorney may be found who will mediate the dispute. The parties will, however, still be responsible for the payment of their own attorney's fees and costs. When making contact with the Faculty, please have a copy of the complaint and answer (or similar document with case identifying information) with you.