

Importance of Complying with Bankruptcy Code and Rules

The Court expects and requires compliance with the requirements of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (as applicable), and the Local Bankruptcy Rules from all counsel, debtors, creditors, and other parties (including pro se litigants).

These Chambers Procedures are provided only to advise counsel, debtors, creditors, and other parties (including pro se litigants) of this Court's specific requirements, which supplement the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (as applicable), and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. The Court cautions that failure to comply with the applicable statutes, rules, procedures, and Court orders, may result in adverse consequences.
