UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

IN THE MATTER OF FEDERAL
PRO SE CLINIC OPERATIONS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF JUDGE 2020-3

May 28, 2020

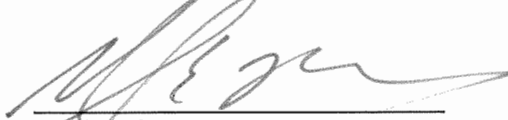

The United States District Court of the District of Colorado previously implemented a pilot program authorizing the creation, location, and operation of a clinic to assist its pro se litigants. The resulting Federal Pro Se Clinic (FPSC) operated pursuant to an agreement between the District Court and the Colorado Bar Association. On July 11, 2019, the District Court approved the Clinic's continued operation under the terms of the agreement. Now, the FPSC is expanding its services to include pro se litigants before this Court. Therefore, it is ORDERED THAT attorneys, staff, and volunteers associated with the FPSC may provide short-term limited legal services to pro se litigants before this Court subject to the standards of conduct adopted by the FPSC and consistent with D.C.COLO.LAttyR 2(c). It is FURTHER ORDERED that Local Bankruptcy Rule 9010-1(c)(3) is AMENDED as follows: "An attorney may not assist any party with the preparation of a bankruptcy petition or any document required under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007 for filing in a bankruptcy case, without signing the document, except an attorney may provide pro bono services and advice under a nonprofit organization or Court-approved program to an individual without signing any document, entering an appearance, or providing ongoing representation of the individual in the bankruptcy case.”
