UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

IN THE MATTER OF STAYING DISMISSAL OF
CERTAIN CASES FOR FAILURE TO PAY FILING FEE

GENERAL PROCEDURE ORDER NUMBER 2015-1

This matter comes before the Court to address the issue of staying the dismissal of certain asset cases that would otherwise be dismissed for failing to pay the filing fee. The Court finds that it is in the interest of appropriate case administration to stay its automatic dismissal process for non-payment of filing fees for 180 days in any case where the trustee has filed a Notice of Possible Dividends (NOPD). The stay will lift if the trustee requests dismissal or withdraws the NOPD; or if the debtor or other party in interest files a motion to dismiss and the Court determines that dismissal is appropriate. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Court shall stay its automatic dismissal process for non-payment of filing fees for 180 days in any case where the trustee has filed a NOPD.

FURTHER ORDERED that the stay will lift if the trustee requests dismissal of the case for non payment of the fee or withdraws the NOPD; or if the debtor or other party in interest files a motion to dismiss and the Court determines that dismissal is appropriate.
